Fremont Daily Journal.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1861.

ISAAC M. KEELER, EDITOR.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The time for which we engaged to issue our extra has expired. Our effort to give the news has been appreciated by large numbers of our citizens, who have contributed liberally to the enterprise, but the remuneration has not been of a character to justify us in continuing the extra any longer.

In its stead, we purpose issuing a sheet similar to this, to be called the FREMONT DAILY JOURNAL. It will be printed daily, (Fridays and Sundays excepted,) and will contain all the telegraph, local, and such other news as we can get into it.

It will be furnished to the public at the following low prices: A single number, called for at our office, 2 cents; in packages of 10 and upwards for town subscribers, 8 cents per week, and in clubs going into the country of not less than five, sixpence a week, or 25 cents per month.

News dealers supplied at one cent a copy, in packages of 25 and upwards.

At all places where we have been sending our extra we shall be glad to send this sheet. Orders are solicited from every neighborhood in the county.

The FREMONT DAILY JOURNAL is for sale at the Drug Store of C. R. McCulloch.

Our friends in town, who have boxes there, there, can have the DAILY JOURNAL left at the Post Office.

OUR DAILY JOURNAL takes first-rate with the people. It is the cheapest paper published, and gives the news much earlier than any other daily paper sent to this county.

SOLDIER'S GUIDE.—T. B. Peterson & Co., of Philadelphia, will send, upon the receipt of twenty-five cents, the "Soldier's Guide, a complete Manual and Drill Book for the use of all Volunteers, Militia and Home Guards." The book appears to be a concise and convenient little work, and well adapted to convey considerable military information to those for whom it is intended.

The telegraph states that the President has the most positive evidence that treason is brewing in Baltimore, and that measures are being taken to crush it. As a portion of the treatment, we would recommend hemp for Winans and others of that class. Let the price of treason be death.

The most frightful inundations have recently occurred in the island of Java. Many lives were lost, and many thousands of the people are without bread, without any clothing, and without shelter. In one place seven hundred people were drowned together.

It is said that the number of troops now in Washington reaches nearly 25,000. The large proportion of them have heretofore been hard-working men, and will make hardy soldiers. This is particularly true of the Pennsylvanians and the Fire Zouaves of New York.

It is reported upon good authority that all the companies now in Camp Taylor will be mustered into the service of the State, special provision having been made at Columbus for that purpose. This will be welcome news to the volunteers, who were becoming uneasy and apprehensive that some companies would be disbanded.

It is said the fit of secession which recently afflicted Maryland, cost her over a cool $1,000,000. Expense is a dear school, but some people will learn in no other.

The Mobile Register, in the game of brag beats even the Richmond (Va.) Examiner. It says: "If the war lasts five years, the terms of peace will be dictated at the gates of Boston."

The Union Defense Committee of New York City have expended, in equipping and provisioning the various regiments from that city, $425,000.

Twenty-first Regiment.

The 21st regiment, which is made up of companies from the northern part of the State, comprises the following:

Huron Guards,	Captain Cook,	Company A.
Wood " "	" Carr,	" B.
Wood " "	" Kellogg,	" C.
Putnam " "	" Allen,	" D.
Putnam " "	" Triff,	" E.
Hancock " "	" Lovell,	" F.
Hancock " "	" Wilson,	" G.
Seneca " "	" Blackman,	" H.
Ottawa " "	" Seaman,	" I.
Defiance " "	" Strong,	" K.

A Big Load of Bread.

The steamer Roanoke is lying at her dock at Georgetown, discharging twelve hundred tons of bread and 20,000 soldier's blankets. No less than twenty-three vessels are lying in the Potomac, discharging cargoes brought here by the Government.

It is a significant fact, says the Albany Journal, that the voluntary contributions already reported for the present year, exceed, by more than three fold, those made by the people of Great Britain during the Crimean War. And yet that fund was heralded as a most extraordinary manifestation of practical patriotism. And it was. That offering was for the comfort of Englishmen engaged in a foreign war. This is for our country and its gallant defenders.

The Nashville papers of the 8th inst., give the vote in the Tennessee Legislature on the passage of the Ordinance of Secession. It was as follows:

Senate—Ayes 20; nays 4.

House—Ayes 46; nays 21.

A man boasting in a company of ladies that he had a very luxuriant head of hair, a lady present remarked, that was altogether owing to the mellowness of the soil.

Six thirty-two pounders, from the United States Arsenal at Pittsburg, with carriages, balls and powder, passed through Chicago on Thursday last, for Cairo.

Rev. Mr. Beattie, of the Bethel, at Cleveland, Ohio, presented a revolver to one of the soldiers of the Seventh Regiment before his departure, with the following injunction: "If you get in a tight place and have to use it, ask God's blessing if you have time, but be sure and not let your enemy get the start of you. You can say amen after you shoot."

One of the Missouri volunteers writes from the camp of his regiment to a friend in St. Louis: "Pilot bread and beans are very good for a limited number of meals, say two hundred, but, as a steady diet, cause indigestion."

TIMELY LINES ON TRAITORS.

Oh, for a tongue to curse the slave,
Whose treason like a deadly blight,
Comes o'er the councils of the brave,
And blasts them in their hour of might!
May life's unblest cup for him,
Be drugged with treacheries to the brim—
With hopes that but allure to fly
With joys that vanish as he slips,
Like Dead Sea fruits that tempt the eye,
But turn to ashes on the lips!
His country's curse, his children's shame,
Outcast of virtue, peace and fame,
On the parch'd desert thirsting die,
While lakes that flow in mockery nigh
Are fading off, untouched, untasted,
Like the once glorious hopes he blasted!
And when from earth his spirit flies,
Just Prophet, let the damn'd one dwell
Full in sight of Paradise,
Beholding Heaven and feeling Hell!

T. MOORE.

Gov. Robinson of Kansas has called for eleven regiments from that State. A large call for so young a State, but it will be met. The Kansas boys have all served an apprenticeship in fighting Border Ruffians.

EFFECTS OF THE EMBARGO.—The marine list of the port of Richmond, Va., no longer appears in the columns of the Richmond Daily Whig. The commerce of that city is wiped out.

Military Matters at the Capital.

Washington, May 11.

Twenty-eight thousand men are garrisoned here, and ten thousand more are within from thirty to forty miles of this point.—Three full German regiments form part of the army of protection.

The Capital is now surrounded by a circle of regimental encampments, completely controlling all roads from Virginia and Maryland.

The Government contemplates the erection of earth works at regular intervals along the Railroads running from the North through Maryland. Preliminary surveys are now making.

I learn from the Navy Department that the ports of Charleston and the mouth of the Mississippi, will be blockaded within a week.

In view of the events in St. Louis, the Government has resolved upon comprehensive measures for the protection of Union men, and the suppression of secession movements in Missouri.

A large body of Western troops will doubtless be thrown into that State.

A Company from Chillicothe, that could not be mustered into service, has offered the Government a bonus of $4,500 for the privilege of serving during the war.

Forty-five West Point Cadets are now drilling volunteers.

New York, May 12.—The Great Eastern made the entire passage in nine days and thirteen hours. She encountered a tremendous gale on the 5th, and rolled heavily. No seas went over her.

In the House of Lords, on the 29th, Lord Woodhouse stated, in reply to a question, that the Government recognized no right or obligation to interfere in the conflict unhappily commenced in America, either diplomatically or otherwise.

The London press, except the Times, sympathize warmly with the loyal States, and anticipate an early triumph for the Government.

The Times fears serious conflicts if the North is determined to force obedience.

COMIC STATE OF THINGS AT MONTGOMERY.—A capital without any capital. A President without any precedent. A Secretary of the treasury without any treasury. A Secretary of the navy without any navy.—A Secretary of the interior without any interior. A Secretary of foreign affairs without any foreign affairs. A Postmaster General without any post office. A Judiciary without any judgment; and, in fine, an Administration without head or tail.—N. Y. Leader.

We understand that a Company of Volunteers at Bellefontaine were notified that they could not be accepted under the requisition for three months, but could under the enlistment for three years. Thereupon 73 out of 81 members of the Company volunteered for the three years, their acceptance was telegraphed to Columbus and forthwith they were ordered to camp and departed on their way. This is the way men do when thoroughly in earnest.
